

TEMPORARY LICENSURE FOR PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS DURING THE COVID-19 STATE OF EMERGENCY AND WAIVER OF SUPERVISION REQUIREMENT FOR LICENSED PAs

The Arizona Regulatory Board of Physician Assistants announces the following available temporary emergency licenses for Physician Assistants (PAs) to practice in Arizona and the waiver of certain requirements during the COVID-19 State of Emergency:

- PAs licensed in another state are eligible to apply for temporary licensure in the State of Arizona using the emergency temporary licensure application. The application fee is waived and, if granted, the PA licensed in another state may practice in Arizona without physician supervision for the duration of the State of Emergency.
- For PAs currently licensed in the State of Arizona, the requirement to have a written delegation agreement with a supervising physician during the State of Emergency is waived for those PAs wishing to providing care in response to the State of Emergency.
- Recently graduated PAs, who have not yet taken and passed the PANCE, may apply for a temporary emergency license; however, the requirement to practice pursuant to a signed delegation agreement with an Arizona licensed Supervising Physician remains in effect.
